Certificate of Attendance

Winter Semester 2025/2026

Yann Dimitri Kenfack Djoutsop, Matriculation No. 1376119

has successfully participated in the course:

English – Target Level C1.2

Lecturer: Dr. Hendrik Winterstein

Coursework: Roadmap C1/C2, Chapters 6-8

Format: Face-to-face, 2 contact hours

Content:

Participants are able to use the English language fluently and with nuance and ease in academic contexts in reception, production, interaction and mediation. They are able to read and understand long, complex, academic and non-academic texts on almost any topic, including from their field of study, and also grasp subtle nuances. The course focuses in particular on topics such as dystopias, consumer affairs, journeys, scams, and skills for life.

Participants have deepened their knowledge of the syntactic structures needed to write summaries of a scientific experiment. Participants can also present individually at length in TED-style and participate in academic debates in which not only factual information but also opinions are well-reasoned and expressed in academic language.

The coursebook forms the basis for the progression of the course. The teaching material is based on the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference) for level C1.

Achievements:

- Completion of the second part (of 2) of the C1 English program at the Language Center
- Regular and active participation in class, including the regular practice of all four language skills
- Self-study language exercises in My English Lab (10/10)
- Speaking exam (20/25)
- Mid-term (19,5/30) and final written exam (23,5/35)

Awarded ECTS: 3

Awarded grade: 3,0

Total points: 73/100 points
